Philam Foundation donates classrooms in Lemery, Batangas

Investing in quality education. Philam Foundation donates two classrooms to Lemery Pilot Elementary School under the “Philam Paaralan” project, which aims to build classrooms with water and sanitation facilities in underserved and typhoon-affected areas around the country. The coastal town of Lemery is among the typhoon-affected towns in the province of Batangas.

“Seeing kids happy with their classroom is very fulfilling. It makes us proud to be able to give back to the community,” said Max Ventura, Philam Foundation Executive Director (second from left).
