Philam Life Fulfills A Seafarer's Dream

Philam Life Chief Life Operations Officer Richard Bracken congratulates policyholder Leonito La-Anan

Leonito La-Anan is a veteran seafarer, who like other overseas Filipino workers (OFWs), sacrifice working away from their families just to provide them a better life. As he planned for his family's future, he made the wise decision of purchasing a Philam Life education policy for his youngest son, John Christian, when he was still a toddler.

Leonito receives the benefits that come from a fully paid education policy, allowing his son John Christian to take-up his chosen course, Tourism, at the Our Lady of Fatima University, where he is incoming second year. Thanks to the timely payouts from his Philam Life education policy, Leonito does not have to worry about providing for his son's college tuition fee anymore, and can focus on saving for the quality of life that he desires for his family's future.

Leonito's decision to partner with Philam Life was affirmed with his proven experience on the company's strong foundation to weather any financial condition.
